

Toronto Mentoring Dinner Series

The Advocates' Society, 2700 - 250 Yonge Street, Toronto

6:00 pm - 8:30 pm

This casual and intimate dinner series brings you face to face with trusted mentors, so you can ask tough questions and get objective answers that will help you build your career and your confidence. Our popular speed mentoring format lets you meet a variety of mentors, grab top tips and make new and lasting connections along the way. The dinner will be tapas style. Mentors will rotate at each course, allowing you optimal opportunity to hear different perspectives and insights throughout the evening.

Well, That was Awkward - Thursday, February 7, 2019

There's no shortage of precious moments for a junior lawyer. It's natural to feel intimidated by more senior counsel and to be anxious when presented with new challenges. Join us for an evening of discussion on how to maintain your composure and hold your own in the office, at discoveries, in negotiations and any other time you find yourself outside your comfort zone.

Mentors Include:

Kimberly Boara Alexander, KBA Partners LLP

Kristine Judith Anderson, Bales Beall LLP

Jason J. Annibale, McMillan LLP

Edward J. Babin, Babin Bessner Spry LLP

Vincent M. de Grandpré, Osler, Hoskin & Harcourt LLP

Rochelle Fox, Ministry of the Attorney General

Lily I. Harmer, Paliare Roland Rosenberg Rothstein LLP

Build it They Will Come - Wednesday, May 22, 2019

Reputation is everything. You are getting on track for a successful legal career, but how do you develop reputation? Mentors in a firm like yours (big, small or solo!) will listen to your concerns and offer tips on how to build your reputation within your firm, your network, and in court. How do you market yourself and build your business? What makes for a strong client relationship? Can you learn to maintain your "self" in the age of the client's revolution?
