

The Young Advocates' Standing Committee Presents:

Your Profession and the Future of Lawyer Licensing

Thursday, February 28, 2019 | 5:30 PM - 7:00 PM

The Advocates' Society | 2700—250 Yonge St, Toronto

Join us for an evening of discussion regarding the future of the lawyer licensing process and new changes very recently approved by the Law Society of Ontario (LSO).

After extensive province-wide consultation and a comprehensive review of the licensing process, the LSO has decided to retain the two current transitional pathways of articling and the Law Practice Program (LPP) with enhancements. Our panelists will include those who were actively involved in the consultation process. Come hear their perspectives on how the changes will affect your profession.

Speakers:

Gina Alexandris, Ryerson University Law Practice Program

Priya Bhatia, The Law Society of Ontario

Erin D. Farrell, Gowling WLG (Canada) LLP

Nima Hojjati, Swadron Associates

Peter C. Wardle, Singleton Urquhart Reynolds Vogel LLP

The Young Advocates' Standing Committee of The Advocates' Society serves as a voice for the interests of all young advocates, while fostering networking among them and between young advocates and the larger TAS membership. Young advocates are lawyers who have been called for 10 years or less.
