Who Are We?

- We are the authoritative voice of advocates within the justice system.
- We attract members who are or aspire to be part of a community of best advocates.
- We are committed to being an organization that is diverse and inclusive.
- We are an organization that is committed to providing members of all levels of experience with opportunities for mentoring, networking and collegiality, including special opportunities for young advocates.
- We provide a dynamic platform for the discussion and exchange of ideas among members across regional boundaries.
- We focus on performance-based skills training and signature advocacy-education programs.
- We are committed to giving back to the community, including through pro bono services.
- We are committed to open, transparent, accountable and financially prudent governance of the Society which supports the achievement of our vision.

“TAS offers so much more than its excellent CLE. From promoting diversity, inclusion and equality to defending judicial independence, it is a beacon for the entire Canadian justice system.”

- The Hon. J. Michael MacDonald, former Chief Justice of Nova Scotia

Why Join The Advocates' Society?

Learn. Teach. Connect. Give Back.

Be one of over 5,000 advocates across Canada who enjoy unsurpassed skills-based education, access to an experienced mentor network, inclusion in an active peer community who 'get' what you do, and the opportunity to knowledge-share with others. No matter what stage you are at in your career, if your passion and practice is litigation, a TAS membership offers the tools and community you need to build your best career.

Master the Art & Craft of Advocacy (and Save!)

The Advocates' Society is the premier provider of advocacy skills training in Canada with an innovative curriculum that features our signature "Learning by Doing" programs led by our trained faculty. Members always enjoy savings on TAS CLE.

Be Part of Our Strong Voice for Advocates

Your membership supports our important work in shaping the future of the profession. As the voice of advocates and the clients we serve, we are committed to a wide range of emerging issues, including access to justice, judicial appointments, judicial independence, and civility and professionalism – and we work hard to make an impact.

Help Shape the Next Generation of Great Advocates

Nothing is more rewarding than sharing your skills and experience with your peers, and we offer members opportunities to do just that. Help plan Practice Group events, mentor young advocates, teach skills, speak at a seminar or contribute to our publications. Your efforts will help better the profession and build your profile with your peers.

Get Collegial, Expand Your Network & Build Your Practice – Locally & Nationally

Our social events and Practice Group programs offer members the opportunity to connect with the bench and bar in informal settings. From casual pub nights to destination conferences, our events will get you connected with our growing community of like-minded advocates.

Enjoy Exclusive Access to TAS Publications

Members receive a complimentary subscription to The Advocates' Journal, our highly regarded quarterly publication that features updates and articles from leading legal professionals, and is a must-have for your law library.

Signature Events and Programs

Members can enjoy savings and exclusive opportunities to learn and connect with the bench and bar at our signature events and programs. From casual pub nights to gala dinners, or intimate advocacy skills workshops to major symposia, all of our events and programs are created to strengthen our community of like-minded advocates.

Members can connect with their colleagues at signature events like these:

Signature CLE

TAS members always enjoy reduced pricing on our major symposia, including the Atlantic Symposium, Women in Litigation and national young advocates conference, Fall Forum. We also offer a rotating curriculum of core advocacy skills programs where participants can learn-by-doing. We have successfully pivoted our core content to interactive, virtual platforms to keep our members' skills sharp.

Atlantic Socials & Celebrations

Our Atlantic members love to get social at annual events like our Cure for the February Blues for the bench & bar. The Advocates' Society was also honoured to host over 500 members of the profession at the Retirement Dinner for Chief Justice Michael MacDonald & Chief Justice Joseph Kennedy in April 2019 in Halifax.

Atlantic Excellence in Mentoring Award

The Atlantic Excellence in Mentoring Award honours an advocate who has shown outstanding commitment to and excellence in mentoring other advocates in Atlantic Canada. The inaugural presentation took place in 2020.

Young Advocates and 10+

Our Young Advocates' and 10+ Standing Committees run a variety of collegial events for advocates in their early to mid-years of practice, keeping our members connected with their peers. From Pub Nights to Mentoring Dinners and Fireside Chats with leaders of the bar, our local Committees work hard to keep new lawyers connected and learning.
