

The Advocates' Journal Submission Guidelines

- Content: We value articles about advocacy and advocates that are topical and crackle with currency.
- File format: We accept submissions only in Microsoft Word format.
- Length: Although we appreciate concision, there is no maximum or minimum length for Journal articles. The majority of our articles are between 1,500 and 3,500 words (excluding notes), but we will consider articles outside this range.
- Notes: We would prefer articles without notes, but whether to include notes is at the author's discretion. (All direct quotations should be referenced, however, whether in the body of the article or in notes.) If you include notes with your submission, we prefer endnotes to footnotes. When reviewing notes after completing the final draft, double-check that cross-references ("ibid.," "supra") haven't changed because of late additions or deletions of text.
- Citation format: We do not insist on a particular citation style. If you include citations, we trust that you will ensure they are accurate, complete, current and internally consistent. In particular, check that citations to Internet sources refer to web addresses that are valid as of the date of the submission. If a cited web address is no longer valid, we expect you to make note of this in the citation.
